MANUEL LUIS QUEZON

Bibliography and Compiled List of other Reference Sources in the U.P. Jorge B. Vargas Museum Library and Archives Collection

Introduction

This finding-aid will provide compiled list of titles of books and serials, papers and manuscripts written about/by Manuel Luis Quezon. This list comprises Quezon's biographies, compilation of his speeches, addresses, messages, proclamations, executive orders, photographs, newspaper clippings, etc. available in the U.P. Jorge B. Vargas Museum Library and Archives.

The following bibliography of sources were gathered and arranged according to format, type, and date. It also includes the exact location (if available) as well as brief description and number of copies in the collection to facilitate easy retrieval of materials/documents as indicated.

The bibliography is intended to aid the users of the Vargas Museum Library and Archives in fast retrieval of information to eliminate time consuming search effort for available titles and materials. It will also address the more efficient way in cross-referencing of materials for scholarly research. More importantly, it will give the users of the library an idea how diverse the collection is about the subject of this compilation. As well as it also intend to promote the Vargas Museum Library and Archives to researchers and other institutions.

Target beneficiaries of this finding-aid are but not limited to local and foreign students, faculty, institutions, companies, and private individuals who are interested in the subject.

The list is non-conclusive as more materials remain un-catalogued as of this date due to lack of staff, facility, and equipments needed in the process. Provision for other type and formats of the materials in the collection are open for further expansion of this finding-aid.

No.: 10 (330)

Date of Publication: October 1935

Accession No.: 6511

Pages: 479

Description: Discussed results of the 1935 presidential bid. Quezon polled 68% of the votes as against 17% for General Emilio Aguinaldo and 15% for Bishop Gregorio Aglipay. Though Hartendorp remarked that the word "overwhelming" was hardly justified in the case of Mr. Quezon, he believed it to be the most fortunate thing for the country.

Inauguration of the Commonwealth

Author: A.V.H Hartendorp

Volume: XXXII

No.: 12 (332)

Date of Publication: December 1935

Accession No.: 6511

Pages: 603-605

Description: An outline of the significant events of the Inauguration of the Commonwealth. Includes a copy of the address of Secretary of War, George H. Dern, affirming America's "unprecedented colonial policy" and the inaugural address of President Quezon.

Mr. Quezon as President

Author: A.V.H Hartendorp

Volume: XXXIII

No.: 2 (334)

Date of Publication: February 1936

Accession No.: 6512

Pages: 65

Description: Discussed what Manuel L. Quezon has achieved, so far, as the President of the Commonwealth.

President Quezon and the Gambling Evil

Author: A.V.H Hartendorp

Volume: XXXIII

No.: 3 (335)

Date of Publication: March 1936

Accession No.: 6512

Pages: 117

Description: Discussed President Quezon's campaign to eradicate jueteng and to close the professional gambling houses.

Philippine Independence in 1938

Author: A.V.H Hartendorp

Volume: XXXIV

No.: 4 (348)

Date of Publication: April 1937

Accession No.: 6513

Pages: 161-163

Description: A reaction to the publication of the joint statement of President Manuel L. Quezon and Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Sayre, to the effect, principally, that the former had suggested that the date of Philippine Independence might be advanced to 1938 or 1939.

The Reductio Ad Absurdum

Author: A.V.H Hartendorp

Volume: XXXIV

No.: 11 (355)

Date of Publication: September 1937

Accession No.: 6513

Pages: 485-486

Description: Hartendorp criticized statements made by President Quezon advocating the grant of independence earlier than in 1946. Quezon was fond of using arguments by reductio ad absurdum in most of his statements which Hartendorp found to be irritating.

President Quezon's Reform Program

Author: A.V.H Hartendorp

Volume: XXXV

No.: 2 (358)

Date of Publication: February 1938

Accession No.: 6514

Pages:

Description: A commentary on the reform program envisaged by President Quezon.

Justice and Friendship for All

Author: A.V.H Hartendorp

Volume: XXXVI

No.: 4 (372)

Date of Publication: April 1939

Accession No.: 6515

Pages: 57

Description: Hartendorp reckoned the commencement address of President Quezon. It showed a clear grasp of international and national realities, bringing out impressively the existing international anarchy, the need of a new world order, the need, in the mean time of national defense and the connection between national defense and social justice within the nation. But this clear-sighted address ended on a rather pathetically inadequate will.

Quezon's Wise Decision

Author: A.V.H Hartendorp

Volume: XXXVI

No.: 8 (376)

Date of Publication: August 1939

Accession No.: 6515

Pages: 323

Description: A commentary of the President Quezon's decision not to run for re-election even if the Constitution was amended to permit it.

Mr. Quezon's "Partyless" Democracy

Author: A.V.H Hartendorp

Volume: XXXVII

No.: 8 (388)

Date of Publication: August 1940

Accession No.: 6516

Pages: 299-305

Description: Hartendorp on Quezon's radical suggestion of eliminating political parties because of evils inherent in the party-system. He also presented facts about the nature and development of American democratic procedure.
